What If Some Brother Departs From the Truth of Christians Living?

Shepherds Notes by Zack Petties

In the book James 5: 19-20 it reads, "Brethren, if any of you err from the truth, and one convert him; verse: 20. Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. To err from the TRUTH may be referred as "mised from the truth." The Bible plainly teaches that Christians can backslide or go backward instead of forward in their spiritual lives. Satan does not give up on a person when he/she becomes a Christian. In fact, he becomes more intent to destroy us "*prowl*ing around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8). There is a warning for a Christian to fall away as Paul mention in (1 Cor 10:12). A terrible fate awaits the child of God who err from the truth and does not repent of his sins. Peter says, "For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered you to them" (2 Peter 2:20-21). The importance of the truth to the child of God is constantly emphasized in the Bible.

- We must love it (2 Thess 2:10)
- We must obey it (Gal 5:7)
- We must display its fruits in our lives (2 Cor 4:2)

To wander or turn away from the truth can led to either or both: accepting a false doctrine instead of holding to the truth or refusing to live by the demands of the truth into sinful acts or misconduct. Simon Peter response to Christ, "to whom shall we go" (John 6:68) couldn't be clearer when we turn from Christ we turn to Satan. We need to pay close attention to the needs of our brethren. In the church the spirit of us all or not to push others down, away, or to delight in their fall but to help others along and to lift them up if they should fall. We should always pray for them, and go to them appealing to them to come back to the Lord.

In Love,
Shepard Petties

COMMITMENT

From the Desk of Dan Carter

The words of Paul concerning commitment to Christ sums up how Christians should feel. “I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet, not I, but Christ lives in me”-Galatians 2:20.

At the end of his life, he penned these words: “I am ready to be offered, and my departure is at hand. I found a good fight, finished my course, and, I have kept the faith”-2 Tim.4:6,7.

As we strive to make heaven our home, we do not see what works we do as 'earning' that eternal place. Rather, faithful Christians render good deeds to the glory of Christ, in God.

In James 2:26, James declares: “Without works our faith is dead.” In other words, we show our appreciation to the Savior by doing good in His name. Here is another scripture: “Whatsoever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord”-Colossians 3:17. We are bought with a price and glorify God in our body and spirit-I Cor.6:20.

We belong to Him, so we show by our actions who we are. We are children of God, therefore we do all things in His Name. In Philippians 2:5, Paul said, “Let the mind of Christ be in you.” What does that mean? It means that Christ pleased God in all He said and did. Therefore, we should be like Christ. The glory is not for us! Listen, “But, if I glory, I glory in the Cross of Christ”-Gal.6:14.

We do what we do in the name of, and to the glory of, Christ. The Lord's example is perfect. Perfect in physical and spiritual life.

Now, go to 2 Corinthians 3:18, and you will see the image we are to portray: “But all of us, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory unto glory.”

What I am trying to say is that you and I are to be the mirror of the Lord. We are to be like Him. We are to lose ourselves in Christ. We die with Him, so we can live with Him. And, we are not in some way paying Him back for what He did for us. We could never do that. We are simply showing the love He showed while here. He lives in us. We show the love of Christ in our deeds and actions.

So, let us be concerned that where we go and what we do, will always be an honor to Him. It is sad that we take so much time from the Lord's cause to do our own thing. Many hours are spent in the pursuit of things in the world and a few hours are given Him in worship on the Lord's day. What can we say at Judgment? Go to Matthew 25. Notice that he gives life to those who did good deeds in His name. It was not for their glory, but His. It was not to make a name for self, rather, it was to give glory to His name; the only name by which we can be saved (Acts 4:12).

Commitment is necessary in every walk of life. It is commitment that spells victory, or failure. If a man does not put in the work for success, he fails. Likewise, being committed to Christ means that He takes First Place (Matt.6:33).
