"SOMETHING is BETTER Than NOTHING"Shepherds Notes by Zack Petties*

In our early years it may have been instilled in us to do our very best in what we did. But, in some the ideal is, "At least I've done or given something." In Gen 4:5-7, when Cain learned that God had not accepted his sacrifice he was wroth, and his countenance fell. In verse 7, we learn that right behavior results in good productivity. God evaluates both our motives and the quality of what we offer Him. Those of us who lead the church especially need to ponder these things. Notice in Malachi 1:7-13, when the Lord confronted Israel through Malachi, Israel didn't get it. In verse 6, the priests said, "How have we despised Your name?" In verse 7 they also said, "How have we defiled You?" They looked at all their activities: they were busy offering sacrifices and leading the people in worship. What was the problem in the attitude illustrated?

The problem was that they were not doing what they did with a God-ward focus. They were not offering their sacrifices to please the Lord. They were not focused on magnifying His name. In fact, they were bored with the whole thing (V:13). Their attitude reflected their arrogance and lack of reverence for God. They were going through the motions of worship, but their hearts were not seeking to exalt and glorify God as He deserves. It's really easy to lead in worship, preach sermons, teach Sunday School, or serve the Lord in any capacity with wrong motives. If our hidden motive is to have people think highly of us, our hearts are not right before God. Our attitude in all service or labor should always be, "Lord, this is an offering to please You and to magnify Your name!" Any other focus dishonors God, whether we are aware of it or not. We should give God His due honor of service, and not just give Him what we want to give Him. Salvation is a free gift. You cannot earn it or pay for it. You can only accept it freely. And it came at the cost of the sacrificing the life of God's beloved Son. Once you accept such a precious gift, it demands everything you have in response. When you recognize that you are not your own, you were bought with a price, and that all that you have has been freely given to you by God, how can you hold back anything from Him? But these priests in Malachi's day were giving God the left-overs. They had no use for a blind, lame, or sick animal, so they'd give it to God on the altar (1:8). But God tells them that He would rather that they close the doors of the temple than to have them offer these cheap sacrifices to Him (v.13).

Don't give God the leftovers! Give Him the best you've got! His name will be great among the nations. Make sure that He is great in your daily life! When we all appear before the judgement seat of Christ; what a joy it would be to hear the words of the Lord. Saying, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou has been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord" (11 Cor. 5:10; Matt 25:21).

In love,

Brother Petties

TAKING SIDES

"I'm not taking sides"-- I know you have heard that statement before. Some men have a disagreement in the church and you will hear the above statement: "I don't take sides."

What about taking the Lord's side? Have we ever realized that in an argument one person is wrong and the other is right? Both cannot not be right! Now, they can both be wrong, but they cannot both be right. That is true. No way around it. So, when a person fails to take sides (as he calls it), he either knows what is right but doesn't want to contradict a friend; or, he just does not care for the truth in the matter.

This makes me think of a scripture our Lord gave in Matthew 6:24. Remember it? "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other." This reminds me of another passage in Matthew 12:30: "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathers not with me scatters abroad."

So, when a person fails to take a stand for the truth, he has chosen the false way. Either we choose to stand with Christ in truth, or we choose to follow the false way; there can be no other conclusion.

'Choosing Sides' shows that we are not directed in our thinking by truth, but friendship. This is sad. Churches are often split asunder because of such foolishness. "Truth is truth," whether we like the person, or not. Let the truth stand. Stand for truth.

I go back again to the words of Joshua. Last week I told you of his heroic stand against the false way and his love for the way of God. Hear his words again: "And if it seem evil for you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom you will serve; as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord"-Joshua 24:15. As surely as they were called upon to make their decision, so must we do today.

Take your stand for righteousness. Stand on the Truth of God. Stand for the right. Be ready to give answer for your faith.
