AS TIME PASSES

Paul said one time: "When I was a child I spoke as a child, understood as a child, but when I became a man, I put away childish things."

I know one thing, time seems to pass faster now that I am older than it did when I was a child. I was always wanting it to hurry up and be Saturday, so we could take a bath, and go to the old country store. It seemed like Christmas would never come. We kids were always wanting to get to be teen-agers! Remember?

But, now that we are older, it seems that time just flies by. Half of 2018, is already passed! Good intentions seem to just get lost in the shuffle. We plan for our golden years, but they seem to get here faster than we planned!

My hair has gotten gray...wonder why? I have hurts and pains where they ought not to be. The other day, I had to get down on one knee and I hardly was able to get up again!

Is it just me, or do the rest of you feel the same way? My grandpa died when he was 70. My dad passed when he was my age. And, why am I thinking about that?

I have always loved the statement made by Solomon in Ecclesiastes 9:10, "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave where you are going;" and sure enough, we are all headed that way.

Often, I allow my mind to wander back to the "good old days." I think about the fun I had with my friends. We spend many hours fishing and swimming in the creek. We looked at the clouds and imagined images in them. We listened to the poor cries of the creatures at night and wondered if they were lost and looking for their way back home. When the rain fell on the roof of our old house, it would lull us to sleep at night. We were just as happy as could be. We had no telephones, no TV's, nor indoor plumbing, yet we were happy. Mother had an old #3, washtub; in it we took our baths (on Saturdays, if we needed them, or not!).

Kids these days will not know what I am talking about--but, you older folks will remember. They were simpler times.

One thing that I will never forget is the gospel meetings we would have every summer. Some of the greatest preaching I ever heard. Many, many, souls would turn their life to Christ and be baptized in the Creek. Many souls would gather and sing hymns of praise as then, one by one, folks would enter the water, and be baptized.

These are days I will never forget. I pray that our country will have an awakening and turn back to God before it is too late.
