MEMORIES

"By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion"-Psalm 137:1.

When the people went captive, it did not take long for the 'Good Old Days' to be remembered. They had rebelled against the God of heaven and had brought disgrace to beloved Zion! In captivity, they were paying the consequences!

Memories are wonderful. In a moment we can recall our childhood, parents, and siblings. But, there are sad days that we recall as well. The memory will be filled with good, or bad, according to how we lived.

In my office are mementos of my past. I began preaching the gospel over 54 years ago. I can look back and remember; but, I can also look forward in anticipation. My children are grown now with families of their own. My grandchildren will soon be building their families as well. Awe, life goes on!

In one of the pictures, I see brother Roy Deaver. He was a major force in my life. I attended one of the first 'Preacher-Training' schools among us. Brother Deaver established it in Fort Worth. There were four of us in the first graduating class. From there, I attended and graduated from three other higher schools of learning. God greatly blessed me with a loving wife for 46 years.

I saw a sign yesterday that reminded me of a great truth. It read: "I know not what tomorrow may hold; but, I know who holds tomorrow!" Such faith keeps us going. Without faith in God, we would become animals in our reactions to others, and to self. God makes life worth living. He gives hope to carry on.

I am greatly blessed with many, many friends. These brothers and sisters are scattered over a number of states. They keep in touch with me and tell me of their love...I love them, too! I wish we could all live together in a large mansion...by the way, we will! My Lord has made it possible that we can be together, forever. I look forward to hearing the sweet spirit of Jeannie, again. I look forward to hearing my dear mother, saying: "Danny!" That is what Mama called me.

So, what do we do from here to the end? We must keep the faith. We must keep on doing right deeds to the glory of Christ. His death and resurrection assures us that we have nothing to fear. He has the keys of hell and death (Revelation 1:18)!

Special Note: I will be taking the first two weeks of August off. I need to relax and visit some dear friends.

God bless you all, I love you.
