WALKING BEFORE GOD

Shepherds Notes by Lee Fisher

The Lord appeared to Solomon a second time and said unto him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built to put My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually. Now if you walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments, then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised David your father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.' But if you or your sons at all turn from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out of My sight"-(1 Kings 9:1-7).

After Solomon had finished building and dedicating the temple, God warned him that he and his people were not to be disobedient, but fear the Lord and keep his commandments. But "Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, and did not fully follow the Lord, as did his father David." Nothing can purchase for us liberty to sin, nor should we believe that we have a license to do so because of God's grace. Solomon later realized he would rather be chastened of the Lord, than be allowed to go on with ease and prosperity in sin.

One of the most dangerous doctrines taught in denominationalism today is the doctrine of, "Once saved, always saved." The belief of this doctrine states that once a person enters into a saved state with God there is nothing that saved person (Christian) can do to fall from that state of grace. He cannot so sin as to be lost in hell eternally. Once he is saved, he is always saved. It is very clear from the scripture reading above and other scriptures (Gal 5:1-4 & 2 Peter 2:20-22), that the bible clearly does NOT teach this false doctrine!

James 5:19-20, teaches that one can fall away from God and lose his salvation. James warns Christians that some of them could "wander from the truth" and need a brother to "turn him back" (5:19). This wandering brother is called a "sinner" who needs to be turned "from the error of his way" (5:20). When he turns, it "will save a soul from death." Thus, if this wayward brother is not turned back, his soul will not be saved from death. He is lost! His soul is not saved!

If we hold fast to our faith, God will not fail to keep his promises, "For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end" (Heb 3:14), and God will confirm us in the end. Also, I Kings 9:6 is a warning not only to us, but our children, "But if you or your sons at all turn from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you but go and serve other gods and worship them." Let not the children of godly parents expect to receive of the blessings unless they also walk in the steps of those that are gone before them! Therefore we need to diligently teach our children (Deuteronomy 6:6-9).

Solomon turned away from God and worshiped the false gods of his many pagan wives. The book of 1 Kings is a warning to all of us of the danger of disobedience! Even this wise man was deceived by his own sin. It should remind Christians of how much we need God! "Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall"-(1Cor 10:12).

"Keep the faith!" Lee

From the Desk of Dan Carter

HERE I AM; (RIGHT WHERE YOU LEFT ME)!

Most of you have experienced the same problem as have I. I lay my keys down, or my telephone, and then run all through the house frantically, trying to find them! Once they are found I then remember that I had left them there. They had no legs to get up and run and hide. They are right where I left them!

How about that? It is right, isn't it? The inanimate does not move itself, nor think on its own. Leaving the keys in the car is easy to see. I stand on the outside looking in! I know where they are, but getting to them is the difficult thing. However, when left in a place usually in plain sight, we go frantic. We are lost from them, they are not lost from us. They are just waiting until we pick them up again. You see, they have no mind of their own, they don't hide. They are right where we left them!

I am thinking that there should be a wonderful invention: something attached to them, and to a device we have on our belt, or purse, that would whistle if we got too far away!

You understand that the Word of God is that way! It warns us, if we will listen! God has so devised us that we can be warned. We can be encouraged to come back to the word. Don't wander too far away. Be ready to find the way by keeping our focus. God gives us many warnings.

In the Old Testament God warned: "My people have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out broken cisterns, that hold no water" (Jer. 2:13); and, the New Testament says: "Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray" (2 Peter 2:15). God has not gone away from us...we leave God! God is as that Father in Luke 15: He is waiting for us to return--where we Left Him!

The world is in a bad way. Sin has made a ravage of our souls and the earth. I pray that people may wake up and go back and find God! He is waiting for us to find Him, again.

A Crown for a Cross

The Ammonites' history with Israel was continually tense. The Ammonites were descendants of Ben-Ammi, Lot's younger daughter's son (Genesis 19). They refused to aid Israel in their flight from Egypt and had hired Balaam to curse Israel (Deuteronomy 23). In Israel's siege against the last Ammonite stronghold, Rabbah (2 Samuel 12:26–31), Joab had captured the city's water supply and was ready to take the city. He requested that the king come to Rabbah for the final battle so David would receive the honor instead of his captain. When the city fell, the crown was removed from the Ammonite king and placed on King David's head.

What is amazing is that this crown weighed almost seventy--five pounds. Some commentators have trouble believing that it could have been placed on David's head. However, in countries where travel is usually by foot and goods are often carried on the head, seventy--five pounds would not be unusual. I personally have seen young men carrying the rear axles of cars balanced on their heads!

Imagine what a glorious crown it must have been—pure gold encrusted with precious stones. If we travel through time a thousand years, we read of another King who had a crown placed on His head. This crown, however, was not gold nor encrusted with jewels. It was a crown of thorns, plaited by Roman soldiers and forced on the brow of Jesus of Nazareth (John 19:2). He was forced to stand before these mocking soldiers, blood running down His face, as they derisively bowed and shouted, "Hail, King of the Jews!" Jesus was willing to suffer humiliation and even give His life on the cruel cross to save mankind from the wages of sin (Romans 3:23; 6:23). Because He did, God "crowned him with glory and honor" and "put all things in subjection under his feet" (Hebrews 2:7–8). Truly, Jesus is the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords.

There is still more. Let us travel ahead to another time. It may be tomorrow, next week, next year, or ten thousand years from now. It is the time when Jesus appears at His second coming. The dead in Christ will be resurrected from the grave, and along with the living Christians, will be changed and meet Christ in the air (1 Thessalonians 4:13–18). Then there will be a great accounting, the Day of Judgment (Matthew 25:31–46). On that day, Jesus will hand out crowns to His faithful servants. Paul wrote, "Finally, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day: and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing" (2 Timothy 4:6–8).

We can receive a crown, not from a man, but from the King of kings and Lord of lords Himself. Paul referred to this crown as an "imperishable crown" (1 Corinthians 9:25). James and John referred to it as the "crown of life" (James 1:12; Revelation 2:10), and Peter called it the "crown of glory" (1 Peter 5:4). They all represent the wonderful gift of the eternal life with God for His faithful servants. Will you receive a crown? Can God count you as one of His faithful? Ada Powell penned the following words, "There's a crown for your cross, there is gain for your loss; You'll be given a crown for your cross. There's a beautiful crown when your cross is laid down; You'll be given a beautiful crown." —Bob Bauer
