'TO THE WORK...'

Remember the old song we used to sing: 'To The Work! To The Work! We Are Servants Of God, Let Us Follow The Path That Our Master Has Trod'. I often think of it because it was one of the first songs I learned as a Christian. It has great meaning: 'Let Us Do With Our Might What Our Hands Find To Do'.

Over the years, we have been involved in many good works. We must never grow weary in 'well-doing', for in due season, we will reap if we faint not (Gal.6:9). The early disciples went everywhere with a mission. They were spreading the message of salvation to all who would hear (Acts 8:4). We only have to think of the great missionary work of the apostle Paul to be reminded the need to be committed to the cause of Christ.

Next month we will have the opportunity to hear more concerning soul-saving as we hear from the Whitacres from 'House to House/Heart to Heart'. I hope you are making plans to be with us. In the south hallway there is a sign-up sheet, or you can call the office if you plan to attend, or watch online.

As Paul said: 'Let us not grow weary'. We need to be ready to any Good Work. I understand that many things are pressing in our world at this time but the most important thing is the kingdom of God (Matt. 6:33). We cannot grow lax in our Work for Christ. The Soul of Man is worth more than the entire world. Whatever we can do to help another on his journey should be done. Let us not forfeit one thing that can help a soul make it to heaven. Remember, the Bible is clear: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord for they shall rest from their labor; and their works do follow them'- Revelation 14:13.

The present distress has caused many to feel very empty, sad, and alone. We must not allow it to cause us to give up. We must stand strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. We cannot allow the devil to have his way. No one promised a 'bed of roses'. Eternal life is for those who stand the storm and never give in. Then, let us do all we can to win others to Christ; to encourage the down-hearted; and, lift up the fallen.

Remember: 'He that is in us, is greater than he that is in the world'-I John 4:4.

<sup>15</sup> I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

<sup>16</sup> So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup> Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

<sup>18</sup> I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.”
