IT IS NOT VALHALLA!

Shepherds Notes by Lee Fisher

The attention in the news about Afghanistan has brought back many memories. In past times at the hospital department where I work, we had many soldiers assigned who were wounded and ill. Some have died because they could not overcome disease, illness, or injuries that they sustained in battle. But thanks be to God it has been quite a while since we had a soldier pass away. However, this week that changed when we received notice that a soldier assigned to our department died at a very young age. A memorial slideshow honoring him was sent to everyone in our department. As I was looking through the slideshow, I saw pictures of happy and good times with his family. I started thinking about how his wife and children will make it without a husband and father and became very emotional. Then I came to the final slide which angered me a bit. It said 'rest in peace in Valhalla'. In Valhalla! In Norse mythology, Valhalla is a majestic, enormous hall located in Agar, ruled over by the god Odin. It is not clear what his religious belief really was about life after death, but brothers and sisters this is sad. Let us never forget why evangelism is so important! There are many in this city, town, community who are alive and they believe some of the same things about life after death, at least as the slideshow indicated. Jesus said, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few" (Matthew 9:37).

So where are the souls of the dead? There is a 'place' somewhere in the spiritual realm where the souls of men await the coming Day of Judgment. And according to the scriptures, it is NOT Valhalla! A description of Hades is found in (Luke 16:19-31). Hades refers to the place where the souls of departed men await the resurrection. Jesus said in John 5:28-29, "Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation."

Christians need no longer fear the death that is a separation from God because "Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom. 8:37-39). At the end of our lives, our spirit shall return unto God and our bodies shall return to the earth (Ecclesiastes 12:7). Physical fitness can help us to live a life free from sickness and medication. Yet we are all mortals, and susceptible to death (Hebrews 9:27). Death is only to be feared if one is unprepared. Paul said, "For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better" (Philippians 1:23).

Finally 'yes', Satan is still active and we must be wary of him (1 Pet. 5:8-9; 2 Cor. 2:11)...but always remember Christ's sacrifice on the cross has destroyed him! Therefore we know his guaranteed end (Rev. 20:10-12). I cannot be sure the soldier or his family had an opportunity to hear and obey the gospel, but as a reminder, there will be a DAY in which all men, righteous and unrighteous, Christian (1 Peter 4:1) and Non-Christian, saint, and sinner, will be judged and will receive their eternal reward or condemnation (Revelation 20:12-15). All of humanity will be judged at that time.

God Bless, Lee

MEMORIES ARE REMARKABLE

Memories can be a wonderful thing but, in some cases, hurtful. I want to talk about wonderful memories for a while.

Isn't it a wonderful thing to be able to call to mind our childhood? I often think of Martins Mill. This was the public school I attended. I can still remember the teachers I had, and the wonderful friendships that I made. I can still see my friends faces! Martins Mill is still there...it was only a grade school when I attended, we were then transported to Canton, where I attended high school. I still remember the day when I heard of the assassination of John F. Kennedy!

My mother and dad stand so vivid in my memory. My brothers are so vivid. My wife and great family are always with me.

Isn't it wonderful to have memories. The Good Lord knew how much that would mean to us. Often, through the inspired writers, He reminds us to bring to mind those things that are good. He also tells us to forget the things that hindered us, and, to set our minds on things that are good.

I remember when I met with the eleven elders of this church. They were looking for someone who could not only build up the faithful, but, also speak the truth in love to world. They were also looking for someone who would plan on staying (as, in the past, some had only stayed a short time). I told them that I was looking for a place to be at home the rest of my life. When, I said that, they were so happy. We all hugged and they said: We have found our man!

Those good brethren, except for two, have passed on to their reward. I have been with you for some 23 years. Jeannie and I wanted this to be our last place to work. Little Jeannie has passed on. I remain with you. I pray that as a part of this family, I can remain the rest of my days.

We know not what a day may bring, but I want to always remember the family I have here. I pray to be with you always.

NOTE: Thank you for your prayers and help over the past few weeks. Your love, and concern, for me will never be forgotten.

I met with my primary Doctor on the 25th, and received a good report. Remember me in your prayers.

-I love you, all--Dan
