

By the activities of some, we might question how much the Lord's church has volunteered her Lord's day to the Lord. There are never as many attendees to Sunday morning Bible class as there are present at the morning worship service. As for Sunday night, that number again heads south, closely mirroring the number from Bible class. What happened? It's still Sunday; the evening of the Lord's day is still the Lord's day. Have some lost the understanding that God expects us to be present in the assembly of the saints (Heb 10:24-25)? Have some prioritized worldly things over spiritual things (Col 3:1-3)? Have some simply given God what they believe is enough and concluded that the rest of the day belongs to them (Exod 20:8)? Maybe; only those who skip worship services or fail to offer their Sundays to the Lord truly know why they do so.

As the Bible is capable of addressing every facet of life, we have the blessing to be able to open the sacred text and find motivation from God which touches even this habit. The text is in the Old Testament, so it was addressed to God's people of old, but the importance God places on a day He has designated as special easily transfers to our understanding of the Lord's day in the New Testament. Take a few seconds and read what the Spirit wrote through the pen of Isaiah:

"If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath,
From doing your pleasure on My holy day,
And call the Sabbath a delight,
The holy day of the Lord honorable,
And shall honor Him, not doing your own ways,
Nor finding your own pleasure,
Nor speaking your own words,
14 Then you shall delight yourself in the Lord;
And I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth,
And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.

The mouth of the Lord has spoken."

-Isaiah 58:13-14

I encourage you to remind yourself that Sunday belongs to the Lord (the whole day) and ask if you are honoring the Lord appropriately on His day by giving Him control of your actions, your attitudes, and your plans on the first day of the week. It is, after all, the Lord's day (Rev 1:10).

SCRIPTURE READING

Sunday AM: "God Loves Those He Corrects"
Hebrews 12:7, 11

"<sup>7</sup> If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten? <sup>11</sup> Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it."

Sunday PM: "How Do You Respond to Your Sin?"
2 Corinthians 13:5

"<sup>5</sup> Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified."
