

Fourth—Be example, in Attendance, when the elderly are here at every opportunity they can be, it says something, one is not going to let ailments stand in their way of that which they view as most important. (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Six—Encourage others by exhorting, warning, and comforting them (1 Thessalonians 5:14). The elderly have their life experiences to which they can share. Write notes of encouragement to the sick, the discouraged, or even those you observe who are doing something right! Send a brief note of encouragement to a new convert or a committed young person in the congregation.

Seven—Do what you can, the elderly are often unable to do as much as they would like, or in times past – but doing whatever work you can do will be valued and appreciated, especially by the godly. That is all that God expects of you!

Final observation—What about someone who looks back at their life and has regrets? The answer to this is – the past is the past. As Paul said, “forget those things behind and reach forward to the things that are ahead.” Press toward the goal now (Philippians 3:13-14). Realize that it is NOT too late for God to forgive you “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). He will, if you repent and submit to Him, Yes even NOW! Will there be consequences because of your past? Maybe! But deal with such and move on!

In Christian Love, Brother Fisher.
